EVERY BOTTLE OF WINE CARRIES ITS OWN STORY

Every bottle of wine carries its own story. Every wine brand reveals what is hidden behind it. A moment of sincere joy, the taste of passion, decades of tradition or a unique vision of the future.

Wine is a culture you can taste. A drink that is meant to create moments in time. It's the soul of the soil, the echo of the landscapes and reflection of the people who pour their hearts into it. Those who share a love for viticulture, for the culture of drinking wine. In every glass of wine, sunlight and shadow, nature and craft, memory and vision come together.

At the Alpe-Adria Wine Festival & Clubbing, we gathered numerous winemakers from Carinthia, Austria, Slovenia, Italy and Croatia. Countries connected by a love of viticulture. Each country represents its own character, a unique taste and a real story.

Let the walk between tastings of different wines be, in fact, a navigation along the wine map formed by tradition intertwined with innovation. Enjoy the moment and let every sip open new opportunities and let wine become a moment to socialize, explore and discover unforgettable moments.

Welcome to the Alpe-Adria Wine Festival & Clubbing.

AUSTRIAN WINEMAKERS

WEINGUT TAGGENBRUNN

Across some 40 hectares of terraced vineyards surrounding the castle, Weingut Taggenbrunn combines centuries-old Carinthian winemaking tradition with modern viticulture. Sunny south-facing slopes, mineral-rich slate soils and a distinctive microclimate shape elegant wines full of character – from fresh whites and powerful reds to sparkling specialities.

WEINGUT GEBRÜDER NITNAUS

Based in Gols on Lake Neusiedl, Weingut Gebrüder Nitnaus is known for outstanding quality, a commitment to sustainability and a family tradition that is very much alive. The region's limestone-rich soils and distinctive climate shape characterful wines with the fruit-driven profile typical of Burgenland – from reds and whites to noble sweet wines.

WEINGUT HAGN

Weingut Hagn draws on more than 300 years of family winemaking knowledge. Leo and Wolfgang Hagn combine this long tradition with a modern, sustainable approach and deep respect for nature. At their Weindomizil, wine becomes an experience in its own right – with good food and warm hospitality right on the estate.

WEINGUT LEO HILLINGER

Surrounded by vineyards, with views of the Leitha Mountains and Lake Neusiedl, Weingut Leo Hillinger is one of Austria's largest organic wine producers in the premium segment. On more than 100 hectares farmed in harmony with nature, it crafts distinctive wines – from fresh, fruity styles and sparkling specialities to characterful premium wines.

AUSTRIAN WINEMAKERS

NEPOMUKHOF GRASSL

Nepomukhof Grassl is a family-run winery in Göttlesbrunn, in the Carnuntum wine region. Its 13 hectares of vineyards are farmed 100% organically and sustainably, yielding a diverse range of white and red wines that reflect their origin and the distinctive features of the region.

HOF

WEINGUT TAUBENSCHUSS

Weingut Taubenschuss is now run by Markus and Thomas Taubenschuss, the fifth generation of the family. Close-to-nature viticulture, careful handwork and many years of experience shape the wines of this family estate. Certified organic since 2023, the estate embodies quality, sustainability and authentic Weinviertel craftsmanship.

W2-BIO WEINBAU WALTL

W2-Bio Weinbau Walzl is known for characterful natural and orange wines from Carinthia. For more than ten years, Christian Walzl has worked exclusively with PIWI (fungus-resistant) grape varieties, vinifying them with minimal intervention and a delicate touch. Many of the wines mature in amphorae and used barrels, winning admirers far beyond Carinthia with their distinctive style.

WEINGUT STERNBERG

Weingut Sternberg is one of the few organic wineries in Carinthia. Its almost six hectares of vineyards are farmed organically and biodynamically, shaped by hot days and cool nights. Crafted with patience and artisanal precision, the wines mature in clay amphorae and wooden barrels, gaining freshness, depth and character.

AUSTRIAN WINEMAKERS

VINUM VIRUNUM

On 3.5 hectares of vineyards, Romana and Helmut Candussi of Vinum Virunum craft wines that reflect the distinctive character of their origin. For them, authentic, expressive wines full of personality begin in the vineyard. They also draw inspiration from Virunum, the former capital of the Roman province of Noricum, whose history stretches back 2,000 years.

WEINGUT KARNBURG – SEM KEGLEY AND GEORG LEXER

On the vineyard terraces in Karnburg, just outside Klagenfurt, Sem Kegley and Georg Lexer combine different approaches to winemaking with a shared passion for nature and agriculture. Every vine passes through their hands – with patience, sensitivity and as little intervention as possible, they guide the vines' natural growth and create wines of authentic character.

WEINGUT ALPHART

Located in Traiskirchen in the Thermenregion, Weingut Alphart is now run by Claudia and Florian, the ninth generation of the family. On around 30 hectares, they farm mainly Rotgipfler, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, sustainably and organically. As a member of the Österreichische Traditionsweingüter (Austrian Traditional Wine Estates), the family winery stands for quality, origin and characterful wines.

WEINGUT KERINGER

Since 2004, Robert and Marietta Keringer have run Weingut Keringer with the aim of crafting characterful wines of exceptional quality. Today, the estate works with grapes from around 100 hectares of vineyards, with a clear focus on red wine. It is best known for its multi-award-winning 100 DAYS line, whose wines gain their remarkable intensity and complexity from at least 100 days of skin contact.

AUSTRIAN WINEMAKERS

GENUSSGUT KRISPEL

Deeply rooted in the Styrian Vulkanland, Genussgut Krispel combines a close connection to nature with the unmistakable character of its home region. The area's diverse volcanic soils give the Krispel family's wines their distinctive character and a truly authentic taste of the region.

WEINGUT SOMMER

The Sommer family has been making wine in Donnerskirchen on the Leithaberg since 1698. Shaped by the Pannonian climate and distinctive sites and soils, Weingut Sommer combines generations of knowledge with openness to new ideas. The result is authentic wines with character and depth that unmistakably reflect their origin.

SOMMER

WEINGUT ZANTHO

Based in Andau, Weingut Zantho is known for characterful wines from Burgenland's Seewinkel. On around 50 hectares farmed in harmony with nature, it produces fruit-forward red and white wines from indigenous grape varieties such as Zweigelt, Blaufränkisch and Grüner Veltliner. Sustainability, modern cellar technology and the distinctive conditions around Lake Neusiedl shape Zantho's unmistakable style.

WEINGUT GILG

Weingut Gilg in Hagenbrunn looks back on a long family tradition in which winegrowing has always played a central role. Over generations, what was once a mixed farm has developed into a modern winery with a clear focus on quality. Today, it produces carefully vinified wines that reflect the typical character of the Weinviertel.

AUSTRIAN WINEMAKERS

WEINGUT FRAUWALLNER STRADEN

The family-run Weingut Frauwallner is based in Straden in the Styrian Vulkanland and is one of the region's most renowned wineries. Its wines are made exclusively from Vulkanland grapes and shaped by origin and artisanal precision. The heart of the range is the Große STK Ried Buch, which embodies the winery's distinctive character.

STEYER VINA

Nestled among the gentle hills of Slovenian Styria (Štajerska), Steyer Vina is a family-run winery. At its heart is Gewürztraminer, the house's signature grape variety. With its pronounced aromatics and elegance, it shapes the winery's unmistakable identity while reflecting the distinctive character of its origin.

VERUS

Verus was founded in 2007 by three friends and winemakers who brought together their family vineyards, knowledge and passion. The name means "true, genuine and sincere" – values that also define their wines. Careful work in the vineyard and cellar yields authentic wines that express grape variety, vintage and origin in their purest form.

FREŠER

Since 1832, the Frešer family has been closely connected to winegrowing, nature and their home region. Today, the seventh generation passionately tends the vineyards on the hills of Ritoznoj, crafting characterful wines that unite centuries-old family tradition with the unique terroir of this Slovenian wine landscape.

SANTOMAS

The Santomas brand was founded in 1997 with the aim of bringing the distinctive character of Slovenian Istria to the world. Inspired by historical records of the region's wines, Santomas today stands for high-quality wines, the Mediterranean way of life and a deep connection to its origin – a landscape shaped by wine, olives and warm hospitality.

SLOVENIAN WINEMAKERS

RADGONSKE GORICE

Since 1852, Radgonske gorice has been synonymous with Slovenian sparkling wine and is today one of the most storied names in the country. The heart of the house is Zlata radgonska penina – the first Slovenian sparkling wine and one of the most highly awarded. Every bottle combines generations of knowledge with quality, passion and a living wine tradition.

MEDOT

The Simčič family's winemaking tradition dates back to 1812. In the heart of Goriška Brda, Medot today produces elegant traditional-method sparkling wines shaped by the region's distinctive microclimate. Rebula plays a central role, giving the sparkling wines their unmistakable identity, elegance and finesse.

KRISTANČIČ

At Kristančič, wines are made in harmony with nature, shaped by experience, knowledge and meticulous work. Dry and fresh, yet harmonious and expressive, they bear an unmistakable signature. The peacock, the winery's emblem, symbolises the wines' rich diversity of aromas and flavours.

MOVIA

The history of Movia dates back to 1700, and since 1820 the estate has been run by the Kristančič family. On 25 hectares in Goriška Brda, partly on the Slovenian and partly on the Italian side of the border, it produces authentic wines with an unmistakable signature. Natural vinification, respect for the land and uncompromising quality define Movia's philosophy.

SLOVENIAN WINEMAKERS

FRELIH

The story of the Frelih winery began in 1892, when Jožef Frelih took over an old vineyard above Šentrupert. Carried on over several generations, the family tradition today encompasses high-quality still and sparkling wines. Cviček od fare holds a special place: with it, Frelih has helped this unique Slovenian wine win new recognition.

ŠUKLJE

The Šuklje family's winemaking tradition dates back to 1895 and is now carried on by the sixth and seventh generations. With respect for tradition, nature and origin, they craft wines that combine more than a century of family history with modern viticulture and reflect a deep bond with their home.

MIONETTO

Mionetto has been at home in the hills of Valdobbiadene, in the Italian province of Treviso, since 1887. Founded out of a passion for wine and the region, the house combines traditional craftsmanship with innovation, creating distinctive sparkling wines that reflect the special character and lightness of their origin.

CESARINI SFORZA

Founded in Trento in 1974, Cesarini Sforza is one of the pioneers of the Trentodoc appellation. In the Val di Cembra, it produces elegant traditional-method sparkling wines from Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. The name comes from an old noble family and brings together history, origin and Italian sparkling wine culture.

COL SANDAGO

Col Sandago lies in the hills of the renowned Conegliano Valdobbiadene DOCG region, surrounded by vineyards in a truly unique landscape. Distinctive soils, steep slopes and an ideal microclimate offer perfect conditions for the Glera grape, resulting in elegant sparkling wines that express origin, nature and Italian wine culture.

FEUDI DI SAN GREGORIO

Feudi di San Gregorio is known for characterful wines from Campania that combine tradition with modern elegance. Indigenous grape varieties, volcanic soils and passionate craftsmanship shape the wines and give them an authentic, expressive and unmistakably Italian character.

MARCO FELLUGA RUSSIZ SUPERIORE / TOMMASI FAMILY ESTATES

Marco Felluga Russiz Superiore is one of the most storied names in Friuli Venezia Giulia and has been part of Tommasi Family Estates since 2024. Together, they are committed to the highest quality, authentic origin and meticulous craftsmanship – united by a passion for expressing the distinctive character of Italian wines.

TUA RITA

The family-run Tua Rita winery was founded in 1984 in Suvereto, on Tuscany's Etruscan Coast. On around 60 hectares, it produces wines that reflect the distinctive character of the Mediterranean terroir. With passion, craftsmanship and a close bond with the region, Tua Rita has made an international name for itself with wines such as Redigaffi.

VIE DI ROMANS

The Gallo family has devoted itself to winegrowing for more than a century. Since 1978, Gianfranco Gallo and his family have shaped Vie di Romans with a clear focus on origin and quality. By vinifying individual vineyards separately, they create characterful wines with their own identity that authentically reflect their respective sites.

VILLA SANDI & BORGO CONVENTI

Villa Sandi & Borgo Conventi bring together two distinctive wine worlds of northern Italy. Villa Sandi stands for elegant Prosecco DOCG from the hills of Valdobbiadene, while Borgo Conventi in Friuli produces refined white and red wines with the character of the Isonzo and Collio regions. Two different terroirs, united by tradition, quality and Italian wine culture.

WINERY DEFRATTA

The family-run DeFratta winery in Istria combines local winemaking tradition with Mediterranean character and a modern approach. At its heart is Malvazija Istarska, the region's signature grape variety, which yields authentic wines that reflect the distinctive terroir and the soul of Istria.

DAMJANIĆ WINES

Located near Poreč, the family-run Damjanić Wines combines Istrian winemaking tradition with modern expertise. On 13.5 hectares, indigenous grape varieties take centre stage – above all Malvazija Istarska, complemented by Teran and the rare Duranija. The result: multi-award-winning wines that reflect the terroir, Mediterranean character and winemaking tradition of Istria.

VINA POLETTI

The family-run Vina Poletti winery has a winegrowing tradition going back to 1842 and is now run by the seventh generation. At its heart are indigenous grape varieties such as Malvazija, Muškat Ruža and Refošk, complemented by international classics such as Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay.

ROSSI WINERY

In the heart of Croatian Istria, the Rossi family has been passionately producing high-quality wines and spirits since the 1980s. On more than 18 hectares of select vineyards, the family winery combines tradition with modern expertise – always guided by the principle of quality over quantity, for authentic wines that reflect the character of Istria.

CROATIAN WINEMAKERS

CLAI WINES

In the small Istrian village of Krasica, Clai makes authentic wines that express their terroir with great clarity. Its ten hectares of organically farmed vineyards are planted mainly with indigenous grape varieties, shaped by sunshine, limestone soils and the cool Adriatic breeze. In the cellar, Clai relies on spontaneous fermentation and minimal intervention – for characterful wines with a clear Istrian identity.
